YEARLY ROUND-UP

As the year approaches its end and Christmas appears on the horizon, we wanted to conclude 2023 by showcasing some of the key highlights from the past twelve months at IQ Legal Training.

BSA 2022

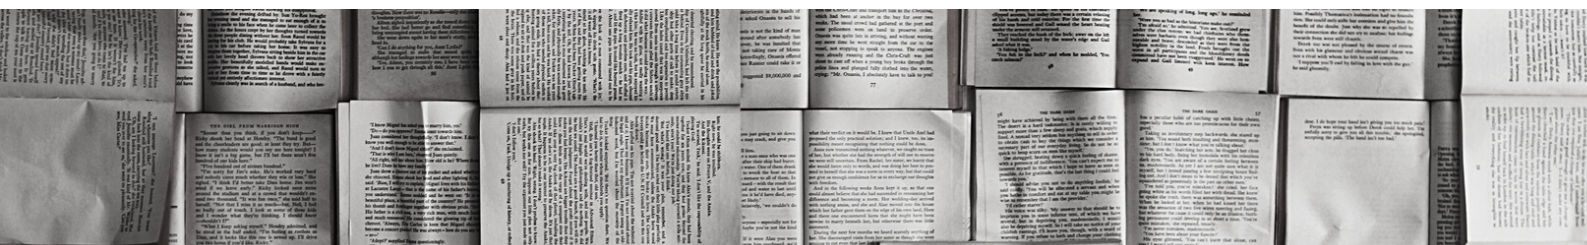

We think it's fair to say that The Building Safety Act 2022 and ancillary regulations have caused issues for conveyancers throughout the last year. In an effort to assist businesses and to shed light on the scope of the legislation IQ Legal Training with the help of Tanfield Chambers has spent a significant amount of time throughout 2023 working to bring you webinars, resources and answers to the many questions you have raised on the subject.

We look forward to continuing with this work as we move into 2024 but in the meantime, should you require any assistance on this subject we invite you to take a look at our extensive range of online courses and training resources which are available to purchase from iqlegaltraining.com

You can also view our FREE Special BSA 2022 June Edition of Property Law UK by visiting propertylawuk.net.

FORUMS

In late 2022, we introduced our inaugural Residential Conveyancing Forum in collaboration with Stewart Title. The event's immense popularity spurred the creation of several new forums catering to diverse specialisations and locations throughout 2023. These forums are designed to provide practitioners with a valuable platform for discussing relevant issues and topics with other industry experts. We are excited to continue running these complimentary monthly events throughout 2024 with the help of our event sponsors and hosts, Stewart Title and Move Reports and we look forward to seeing you there. If you'd like to find out more about any of the forums in this post please contact ijinfo@iqlegaltraining.com.

IQ CONFERENCE

In 2023, we held our inaugural IQ Legal Training conference, and we are delighted to share that the interest in the event exceeded our expectations. Our CEO Ian Quayle, along with Barristers Tom Graham and Nigel Clayton, led the event, joined by guest speakers from Stewart Title, HM Land Registry, and Dye and Durham. Held at the stunning Oulton Hall in Leeds, the day was dedicated to training delegates from firms based in and around Yorkshire and the North East of England, offering a rewarding experience for all involved.

Following on from the success of this event we are pleased to announce that we will be rolling out a programme of similar events in 2024 so watch this space for more information coming soon.

The IQ Legal Training team extends their heartfelt wishes to Barrister and Senior Speaker Tom Graham for a joyful and well-deserved retirement. With an impressive career spanning over 40 years, Tom has been a vital member of the IQ Legal Training team, generously imparting knowledge and captivating us with his anecdotes in recent years. While Tom's absence will be deeply felt, we collectively offer our best wishes for his happiness as he embraces this new chapter in life.
